Hall of
Macksville Lodge, No. 371
A. F. & A. M.

Macksville, Kans., February 24--- 190<sup>14</sup><sub>0</sub>

Secretary, Alvin Lodge # 762 A.F. & A.M.
Alvin, Texas,

Dear Sir and Brother:-

At the request of Mrs Sarah Kirtland and the order of the Worshipful Master I am writing you to try and get a little definite information concerning the decease of our late brother H.A.Kirtland.

This good sister is an aged lady and worthy of all consideration and it seems she is at a loss to know how to proceed to do some things necessary to be done without a little more definite knowledge than she has been able to get so far. Please write me in detail the particulars concerning the death of the late brother, the widow would like to know all about his sickness and death also the funeral, where the interment was made, what expense was connected therewith and by whom it was borne and a number of things that you may be able to tell her that might comfort her in her deep sorrow.

The deceased brother drew a pension and this of course will after the proper procedure be payable to the widow. Now Mrs. Kirtland has a letter from a brother Hill who says that he mailed to her before the date of his letter all the legal papers the deceased had at his death among them were in all probability the papers necessary for the arrangements for a widows pension. Up to noon today these papers had not been received and she is worried about them. Please ascertain whether they were sent and if they were sent by registered mail, parcel post, express or just through the mails as a common letter.

Please go into detail concerning all this as all she has at present in the way of information is two telegrams asking about the disposal of the corpse and she is very anxious for a complete knowledge of the last disposal of her loved one.

For any trouble you may be put to in obtaining this information you have not only the thanks of the widow and her sister Stars but the sincere thanks of the craft of Macksville Lodge #371 at whose request this letter is written,

Yours very fraternally,

J. G. Miles
Secretary.

THE NEW 1910 ISSUE

is securely and beautifully bound in full Morocco Grain Leather with a flexible cover stamped on outside cover with gold leaf.

It will withstand any amount of rough handling and the hard usage it is bound to get when its merits become known to the members of a lodge, and we guarantee that the binding will outlast the usefulness of the book.

The Price is Two Dollars and Fifty Cents.

If you are satisfied that the book is all that we claim for it, we ask that you present it at the next regular meeting of your lodge, and if the book is not purchased, we will send the necessary return postage on advice from you.

Dear Sir and Brother:-

We have taken the liberty to mail to you, under separate cover, our 1910 edition of the Masonic Directory, or "List of Regular Lodges F.&A.M. and A.F.&A.M. of the World".

The enclosed pamphlet explains in detail the several uses of this Directory, and the book, which you will have an opportunity to thoroughly examine, will recommend itself, and convince you of its usefulness.

We wish to make special request that you present our proposition to your lodge at the next stated meeting, advising us promptly of its action, as we have thousands of these books out on approval, and a holdover from one meeting to another means an expensive delay in our circulation.

We enclose an invoice for Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, which is a memorandum for your use, should you wish to purchase the Directory.

Yours fraternally,

SPECIAL—We have just issued a pamphlet containing a list of CLANDESTINE LODGES of the United States, which we will mail gratis to every purchaser of the Masonic Directory.
